Welcome

With a history as rich as the details that went into the restoration of the property, farm fresh, sustainable cuisine and a warm comfortable atmosphere, Hotel Du Village has become the premiere event space and boutique hotel in the Bucks County Area.

17th Century

The area surrounding and including Hotel du Village was part of a large tract of land granted to the Ely family, a notable Bucks County Family among the earliest settlers of Bucks County in the 1600’s. This land was given by William Penn, an English real estate entrepreneur, philosopher, early Quaker and founder of the Province of Pennsylvania in the seventeenth century.

In 1895 Dr. George Morley Marshall of Ohio bought a parcel of the Penn Grant from Ely descendants to establish a country residence for his family in Bucks County. Dr. Marshall’s sister, Caroline Wood, chose the site of our present event spaces as a prime location for a country estate, and at the turn of the century she began the construction of White Oaks, close to her brother’s home across Phillips Mill Road.

Morgan Colt was the architect for the building, and the name inspiration for our Large Dining Room: The Colt Ballroom. Karline Holmquist founded the Holmquist School for Girls in 1917 in a converted barn. The success of her school required expansion, so she acquired White Oaks and adjacent Appledore (our current hotel), a converted stable, from Mrs. Wood in 1925.
The restaurant which is now our ‘Historic’ ballroom, the smaller of the two Banquet Spaces, is in White Oaks, formerly the setting for the academic and social preparation of young ladies. In 1925 Solebury School was founded as a preparatory school for boys at the present “Upper Campus” on Phillips Mill Road. The two schools merged in 1949 with White Oaks, Appledore and Stone Cottage on River Road constituting the “Lower Campus.” Much of the original woodwork has been restored and incorporated into its renovated design; the old Restaurant Flooring has been restored into the high chapel ceilings of the Historic Ballroom’s Prefunction Space & Bar Area.

Solebury School maintained the two campuses until 1976, when Omar and Barbara Arbani purchased the “Lower Campus.” Lodging became available in Appledore during the summer of 1978. Since the late 70’s until 2012, Hotel Du Village was owned and operated by the Arbani family.

Frank and Jeanne Cretella of Landmark Hospitality had spent summers staying at Hotel dup Village with their family and had always dreamed of owning property as special as this. Their daughter even learned to ride her bike up and down the long driveway! In 2013, their dream was realized as they purchased this beautiful historic site in order to make it a premiere destination for events, weddings and out-of-town guests. Frank & Jeanne hope you enjoy your stay as much as they did!

Extended Family

Our other unique venues are further, but not out of reach!

Stone House at Stirling Ridge – OMG, imagine you’re sitting under the stars in the middle of the Watchung Mountains, music in the background, buzzing energy of happy people (possibly tipsy). As couples are roasting marshmallows on a nearby firepit, the serene sound of a water feature makes you turn your head as you see luscious appetizers floating down a streaming water table. You are calmly sipping your ROCKIN’ craft cocktail quickly made by an unpretentious bartender, and the smell of the woodburning pizza oven caresses your nostrils. This. Is. Paradise. The possibilities are endless when it comes to private parties from tiny to grand soirees. Each space incorporates the same quality, fresh, seasonal cuisine and interesting dishes to be enjoyed by you and your guests. You need to get here. Why are you not here yet???. 50 Stirling Rd | Warren, NJ | 908.754.1222 | www.stonehouseatstirlingridge.com

Liberty House – “Wait, I’m in Jersey City lounging by the waterfront?” is the question you will repeatedly ask as you pinch yourself. The multi star restaurant, as well as the two large event spaces, have a NYC skyline view for all guests to enjoy. Neighboring Liberty Landing Marina, the restaurant offers a menu of fresh sushi and seafood, incredible steaks, chops and daily specials. You can expect to feel miles away from ‘jersey city’ on our inviting outdoor patio and while exploring the gardens & firepits. With two separate ballrooms, there is a place for every sized event. 76 Audrey Zapp Drive | Jersey City, NJ | 201.395.0300 | www.libertyhouserestaurant.com

Celebrate at Snug Harbor Private Event Venue located on 83 acres of lush botanical gardens in Staten Island, NY. From the Chinese Garden to the Tuscan Garden, guests love to explore and photograph the many hidden parts of this best kept secret. The Great Hall boasts 40-foot ceilings and Palladian windows as well as multiple fireplaces that beautifully adorn the outskirts of the room. When guests arrive they are awestruck by the warmth and the intricate details of the rooms that date back to the 1800’s. 1000 Richmond Terrace | Staten Island | 866.683.3586 | www.celebrateatsnugharbor.com

Hangover Cures: Great Breakfast Spots

Fred’s Breakfast Club - A members-only breakfast club with no sign and an impenetrable locked door, offering breakfast 7 days a week. Just show them your HDV room keycard and you’re IN!
The rules: 1. We don’t do grumpy at Fred’s. There is a bucket outside the front door to deposit the grumpys in before you enter so you can come in happy.
2. If you aren’t happy, at least keep an open mind to it, so the rest of us have a chance at cheering you up. It is the member’s responsibility to keep the morale high, because with any luck we will be busy cooking and won’t have time to entertain you.
3. If my wife should happen to mention that she thinks you are cute, I will shut your key off.
4. Members are welcome to bring with them anyone to Fred’s whom they wish.
5. Fred’s opens daily at 6 am. and closes at 11am. The computer unlocks the door at 6 whether we are ready or not, and locks the door at 11. Nothing personal if you are there at 11:01.

Mercer Museum (Doylestown) – Henry Mercer personally designed plans for a museum to house his collection, six stories tall and cast of poured-in-place concrete. Mercer's museum was completed in 1916. In addition to tools, it displays furnishings of early America, carriages, stove plates, a gallows, antique fire engines, a whaleboat, and the Lenape Stone. The Spruance Library, which houses the Bucks County Historical Society’s archive of historical research materials, is located on its third floor. 84 S Pine St | Doylestown | (215) 345-0210 | www.mercermuseum.org
Fonthill Castle (Doylestown) – Built between 1908-1912, Fonthill was the home of Henry Chapman Mercer (1856-1930). Archaeologist, anthropologist, ceramist, scholar and antiquarian, Mercer built Fonthill both as his home and as a showplace for his collection of tiles and prints. The first of three Mercer buildings in Doylestown, Fonthill served as a showplace for Mercer’s famed Moravian tiles that were produced during the American Arts & Crafts Movement. Designed by Mercer, the building is an eclectic mix of Medieval, Gothic, and Byzantine architectural styles, and is significant as an early example of poured reinforced concrete. Became an official Museum in 1976 and is a designated National Historic Landmark. East Court Street & Route 313 | Doylestown | www.mercermuseum.org

Get Yourself to the towpath
Bear with me, as there are several ways to travel the Delaware Canal Towpath but essentially only North or South.
Make a right out of our driveway and turn right onto River rd. You’ll want to cross the highway safely (look left and right before crossing the street, just like mama always said).
You’ll see a park, Canal Park, and there will be a path leading to a bridge so you can get on the Towpath!
You’ve reached a ‘crossroads’ so to speak. Here are your options:

NORTH to Stockton, NJ! It is 2.5 miles to Bridge Street, you can cross this bridge over the Delaware and go to Stockton, NJ! Just keep in mind it’s another 2.5 miles back to HDV, so if you’re feeling peckish, bring along some trail mix and water. Unless of course you feel like grabbing some grub in town (Stockton Inn or Via Ponte Ristorante Siciliano)

If you feel like continuing this path north on the PA side, just another half mile up and you will pass Hendrick Island (It used to be part of the mainland, but Mother Nature wanted to be special and carve it out via erosion. Love that woman.) I would advise against crossing water to get to it, ‘cause you might get lost and then someone would have to come find you.

SOUTH to New Hope & Washington Crossing! The ‘center of town’ where all the cool shops & Restaurants are (continue reading this book) just 1.5 miles from HDV. You can travel another half mile and you have just walked the length of all the shops on main street!

If you are one of the few brave and bold, you can travel another 6 miles south and reach Washington Crossing, PA! (OR you can drive there and explore the 400 acre park! See Field Trips section for address & details)
